Promotion of Indian culture and Hindi abroad

t2472. SHRI LAXMINARAYAN SHARMA: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) the arrangements made in various embassies for propagation of Indian culture and Hindi;

(b) the activities carried out towards this goal during the past two years, and the role of ICCR in it; and

(c) the reason for which ICCR has not been entrusted for its empowerment to department of culture?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI RAO INDERJIT SINGH): (a) to (c) Indian Mission/Posts abroad are actively engaged in promotion and propagation of Indian culture and Hindi. Many of the activities undertaken by them in this regard are organized in coordination with the Indian Council for Cultural Relations (ICCR), which is an autonomous body of the Ministry of External Affairs. Indian Cultural Centres have also been specifically set up by the ICCR as required.

To showcase Indian culture abroad, 8 major exhibitions have been sent by ICCR during the last two years, apart from a number of smaller exhibitions. 199 Indian cultural troupes of music and dance forms were sent to various countries for performances, which were organized by the Mission/Posts in conjunction with local bodies. In addition, 5 life size statues, 18 busts of famous Indian personalities and a replica of the Ashoka Capital were unveiled abroad. As part of the Distinguished Outgoing Visitors Programme, the ICCR sent 137 distinguished scholars to various countries for giving lectures and for participating in different Seminars/Conferences.
